

If you're 65 and older, ask your provider about an annual flu shot that could be more effective in taming flu's wilder symptoms.

