

Public Meeting on Safety and Health in the Horse Racing Industry and Best Practices

AGENDA

May 22, 2007

---

- 9:00 Welcome/Introductions
Kitty Hendricks, NIOSH
- 9:10 Opening Comments
Frank Hearl, NIOSH
- 9:20 Examining Environmental Health and Safety Factors at Equestrian
Racecourses Nationwide: Rationale, Approach and Preliminary Focus
David Seftel, MD, Medical Director, Jockeys' Guild and Track Physician,
Golden Gate Fields, CA and Baymeadows, CA.
- 9:40 "On-Track Safety Programs for Thoroughbred Racing
Craig Fravel, Del Mar Thoroughbred Club
- 10:10 On-going Horse Safety Research within the Industry
Ed Bowen, Grayson Jockey Club Research Foundation
- 10:30 Improving Protective Vests for Exercise Riders and Jockeys
Anthony Bahno, AIG
- 10:50 Break
- 11:00 The Health Status of Thoroughbred Jockeys: Results from the Jockeys'
Health Survey
Carlton A. Hornung, PhD, MPH, University of Louisville.
- 11:30 Lunch
- 12:30 Preventive Medicine with Remote Telemedicine; Case Studies & Jockey's
Health
Bonne Farberow, University of Pennsylvania
- 12:50 Workplace Lead Exposure in the Equestrian Racing Environment--
Preliminary Data and Remediation Strategies
Barry Broad/David Seftel
- 1:10 An Overview of Medication Control in Horse Racing
Scot Waterman, Racing Medication & Testing Consortium

Public Meeting on Safety and Health in the Horse Racing Industry and Best Practices

AGENDA
May 22, 2007

---

- 1:30                   “Oversight and Regulation of the Pari-Mutuel Horse Racing Industry”
Alexander M. Waldrop, National Thoroughbred Racing Association
- 1:50                   Collecting and Translating Incidence and Injury Data in the Horse Racing
Industry
Dr. Karin J. Opacich, University of Illinois
- 2:10                   Insurance Data and Injury Prevention
Andrew Staniusz, Magna Entertainment Corp.
- 2:30                   Break
- 2:45                   Public Comment
- 3:45                   Discussion
- 4:45                   Closing Comments
Kitty Hendricks, NIOSH

