Meeting To Address Issues on Metalworking Fluids

    The National Institute for Occupational Safety and Health (NIOSH) of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) announces the following meeting.

    Name: Meeting to Address Issues on Metalworking Fluids.
    Time and date: 9 a.m.-5 p.m., November 2-3, 1994.
    Place: Robert A. Taft Laboratories, Auditorium, NIOSH, CDC, 4676
Columbia Parkway, Cincinnati, Ohio 45226.
    Status: Open to the public, limited only by the space available.
The meeting room accommodates 151 people.
    Purpose: The purpose of this meeting is to provide a forum for the discussion of metalworking fluids' (MWFs) applications, and related issues of occupational safety and health and engineering controls. Presenters will discuss past and present MWF formulations, use, worker exposures, worker protection measures, and current and proposed research. This meeting will provide an opportunity for discussion among Government (NIOSH, the Environmental Protection Agency, and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration), organized labor, and industry representatives on possible
collaborative research and future meetings.
    Contact persons for additional information: General information may be obtained from Judy Curless, NIOSH, CDC, 4676 Columbia
