

Did you know?

Deep needlesticks and sharps injuries put you at a higher risk of HIV or hepatitis infection than shallow injuries.

Contact with mucous membranes and non-intact skin also carry a risk.

Report all exposures and seek a medical evaluation.